

The 613th Commandment

The Torah teaches it is the responsibility of each Jew to personally write a Sefer Torah.

*“Write for Yourselves this Song, and Teach it to the Children of Israel”
(Deuteronomy 31:19)*

It is interpreted by our sages as the 613th mitzvah - the final commandment.

A Sefer Torah contains 304,805 letters. Tradition tells us that one who writes even a single letter in a Torah or causes one to be written through their support, has completed an entire torah and thus has fulfilled the 613th commandment.

Once in a Lifetime Experience

From November through June, we will host a series of events designed to educate and unite our congregation in preparation for the arrival of our new Torah.

From Generation to Generation...
It is not often that we have a chance to create something that will last beyond our years. It is not often that we are inspired and can inspire others. Come and share this moment with us.

Join us in fulfilling the 613th Commandment!
